COMMEMORATION OF
THE SAINTLY WOMEN'S DAY AND CONFES-
SORS OF THE ARMENIAN CHURCH
Saint Lydia & Saint Sahagatoukhd

SPECIAL GUEST: TOM MOORADIAN
12:10PM - BOOK TALK & SIGNING

It began as an adventure for the 19 year old Armenian American from Detroit and became a struggle for survival, demonstrating the indomitable spirit that is Armenian. In the final months of 1947, Mooradian joined 150 other Armenian Americans going to Soviet Armenia, unknowingly renouncing his American citizenship. His is a tale of adventure and survival.

LENT

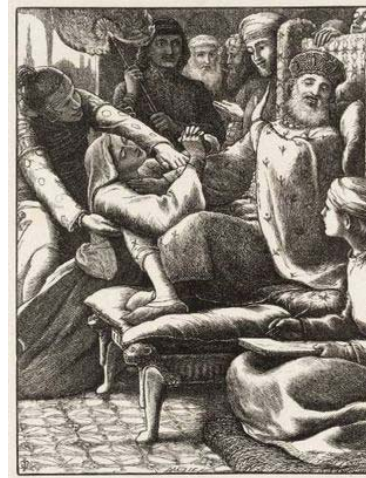

THE UNJUST JUDGE'S SUNDAY

Perseverance and the need to be in constant communion with God

Isaiah 65:8-25; Philippians 3:1-4:9; Luke 17:20-18:14

LENT

THE SUNDAY OF THE JUDGE

It is a reminder for the importance of prayer and for the virtues of humility, fear of God, justice and protection of the weak. Jesus told his disciples a parable to show them that they should always pray and not give up. The Parables of the Widow and the Judge, and the Pharisee and the Tax Collector illustrate the results of the proper practice and importance of persistent prayer with a humble heart. In the former parable, Christians, like the widow, should not give up praying to God even when facing indifference and powerful opposition. If a helpless widow wins her case by persistent pleading before a callous judge, how much will God's elect find quick justice before a loving and righteous Father?

A Persistent Prayer

If you would like to pray effectively, you must pray persistently. God is not like the unjust judge! All that the unjust judge is, God is not. Persistent prayer is ongoing prayer and it is serious prayer. When we get serious, God gets serious. We need persistence; we must never quit.

“Righteous Judge, when You come in the glory of the Father to judge the living and the dead, enter not into judgement with Your servant, but deliver me from the eternal fire, and make me worthy to hear the blissful call of the just to Your heavenly kingdom. Have mercy upon Your Creatures and upon me, a manifold sinner.”

Yesterday we celebrated the Holy Forty Children that were Martyred at the Armenian Sebastia

Yesterday we commemorate the lives of 40 brave youth who chose to die rather than renounce their Christian faith at a time when the spread of Christianity hung in the balance.

In the first decade of the 4th century, the Roman Emperor Licinius intensified his anti-Christian crusade, ordering renunciation of the faith by any military personnel discovered to be Christian. The investigation quickly disclosed that a battalion in Sebastia, harbored Christian sympathizers.

Forty young men confirmed that they were Christian, boldly declaring that although they were faithful to the Roman King, they also would remain faithful to their heavenly King who supplied them with hope, motivation, and courage.

After various attempts to convert the youth back to pagan faith, the King ordered a more severe punishment. In the heart of the winter of 316, the forty youths were left naked in the ice-cold water of a lake. One of the forty could not endure the torture and ran out of the lake to a hot bath which was provided to tempt the Christians to renounce their faith. He died immediately after submersing himself in the hot water. Late that night a light shone from the heavens, forming halos over the heads of the soldiers.

Seeing this, the security guards were thrown into confusion. One of them declared on the spot the undeniable truth of Christianity, and threw himself into the lake in place of the apostate youth. The forty young men became the most inspiring testaments to Christianity in the East, and a church with forty cupolas in their memory could be found in Sebastia before the 14th century invasion of Tamerlane.

The forty youth are remembered in various Armenian services as well as this day of commemoration.
